DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claim(s) 23-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. "A tangible computer readable medium comprising codes" is defined in the specification (paragraph 0055) as a digital file attachment to e-mail and a distribution medium. These definitions are directed to a judicial exception to 35 U.S.C. 101 (i.e., an abstract idea, natural phenomenon, or law of nature) and is not directed to a practical application of such judicial exception (e.g., because the claim does not require any physical transformation and the invention as claimed does not produce a useful, concrete, and tangible result).

Claim(s) 2-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the tangible computer medium execute the methods claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim(s) 20 and 21 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim(s) 2-18 and 23-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the 35 U.S.C. 101 rejection.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
